Celina Insurance Recognizes CPCU Designees

Celina, Ohio/USA – (2/28/11) On February 16, Celina Insurance Group honored 19 staff members who have attained the Chartered Property Casualty Underwriter (CPCU) designation. In order to receive this distinction, individuals must complete seven insurance-related courses. Four courses focus on the basics of operations and finance, three are specific to personal or commercial lines, and one is an elective. The curriculum typically takes four to five years to complete. The purpose of the CPCU is to prepare individuals to meet the changes and challenges of a demanding risk management and insurance marketplace with confidence and professionalism.

Founded in 1914, Celina Insurance Group is a collection of mutual property and casualty insurance companies. Celina underwrites auto, non-standard auto, farm, home, commercial auto and property insurance, as well as umbrella and casualty coverage in seven Midwestern states. Celina Insurance Group is represented by some 600 independent agencies and employs 168 people.
