On April 27, 2011, our area was hit by a hailstorm that almost defies description. Your fine company, Celina Insurance, led the way in turning that horrible event into a happy ending.

Your claims service was second to none. I have people that have been made whole while other companies have yet to adjust a claim for many of their insureds."

“ Celina Insurance led the way in turning that horrible event into a happy ending.”

(Your) Claims department has proven that the insureds that we have placed with your fine company can sleep in comfort. I know that should the same unlucky situation impact them, they will be cared for promptly and fairly. What more can you ask for from an insurance company.

“ I know that should the same unlucky situation impact them, (my clients) will be cared for promptly and fairly.”

The words “Thank You” seem so inadequate, but they are all this country boy knows to say!!
