

Press Release

Date: May 18, 2011

Celina Insurance Group Promotes Meinerding to V.P. of Human Resources

Celina, Ohio/USA – (5/18/11) Bill Montgomery, President and CEO, is pleased to announce that Jane Meinerding has been elected as Vice President of Human Resources of all Celina Insurance Group's Companies. The companies' Boards of Directors approved Meinerding's promotion at their May 16 meeting. Jane will continue to handle all recruiting and personnel management for Celina Insurance Group.

Meinerding has 32 years experience with the company. Prior to becoming the head of HR, Jane built her knowledge of insurance through work in various positions, one of which was as a life underwriter. She holds a Bachelor of Science degree from Wright State University and obtained the PHR (Professional in Human Resources) designation.

When asked about the promotion Montgomery commented, "Roughly two-thirds of our current management team was hired while Jane was Director of HR, as was the majority of the rest of the staff. We believe our current management team and staff is the strongest in our 97 year history."

Jane lives with her husband, Dave, in St. Marys. They have one daughter, Christine, who lives in Atlanta.

Founded in 1914, Celina Insurance Group is a family of mutual property and casualty insurance companies. Celina underwrites auto, non-standard auto, home, commercial auto, commercial property, and casualty insurance, as well as umbrella and farm coverage in eight Midwest states. Celina Insurance Group is represented by some 600 agents and employs 166 people.

-30-

Contact:
Heather Zehringer
Communications Manager
Ph: 419.586.8230
heather.zehringer@celinainsurance.com

Attached Photo Information: Jane Meinerding

